Week Results-Recap

Titans 26, Packers 23 (ot)

Game of the week! Chris Johnson missed the entire game, GB had just over 100 yards offense, Titans chose to kick in overtime, and Turner ran for just about 20! This was a true test of the league's top metal! Titans 4-0.

Cardinals 24, Chargers 14

Beanie Wells became the new starter as Paco guided his pinpoint pass attack past rookie Doug. Though it seemed closer than the score indicates the Chargers never threatened the league's top offense.

Eagles 13, Patriots 10

Run vs Pass in the battle of offensive style! Though it was ugly Jason tilted the machine enough to compile his 3rd 200 yard rushing game and proved once again, winners run the ball!

Cowboys 56, Steelers 15

Lance has found his game much thanks to exiled Marion Barber and his improved Defense. Chad has completely fallen from his once respected 2-0 start to being looked past on the schedule.

Colts Saints

Though statistics indicate these to be the worst teams Matt still has Peyton and does use him well when he mixes it up, while Ricky hasn't let anyone pile up on him yet this season. However, Matts experience persevered.
